Dear friends in Christ,

We begin October with a renewed focus.

Our trip to the seminary was a time of daily chapel and time in the word.

It is not always easy in our day to day to stay on point and to follow all that we need to. When I was at the seminary with Vicar Rich, long time member Rick Arnold passed into the Lord's arms. The text I received brought me back to the importance of why we were there. We grieve with Rick's wife Debbie and family but not as those without hope. Hope is the key to our life in Christ and why the seminary is important for those called to serve the church. While we are there, in person or at a distance, we are connected to the word of God in a deeper and more profound way. It is good for we who serve, but it is also good for you. I encourage those of you who serve in lay leadership positions but also all members of Peace, to be connected to the word in a more personal way. Have a devotion time, join a Bible study or watch the Daily Chapel from the seminary. It is a good way to grow in your Christian faith, be fed on the word of God, and see the hope of Christ in the midst of a world that is pushing Christ away. Know the word and you will know Jesus and the light you shine in the world; God will use for his good purpose.

God's peace,
Pastor Tkac
